

Celebrating the Anzac spirit

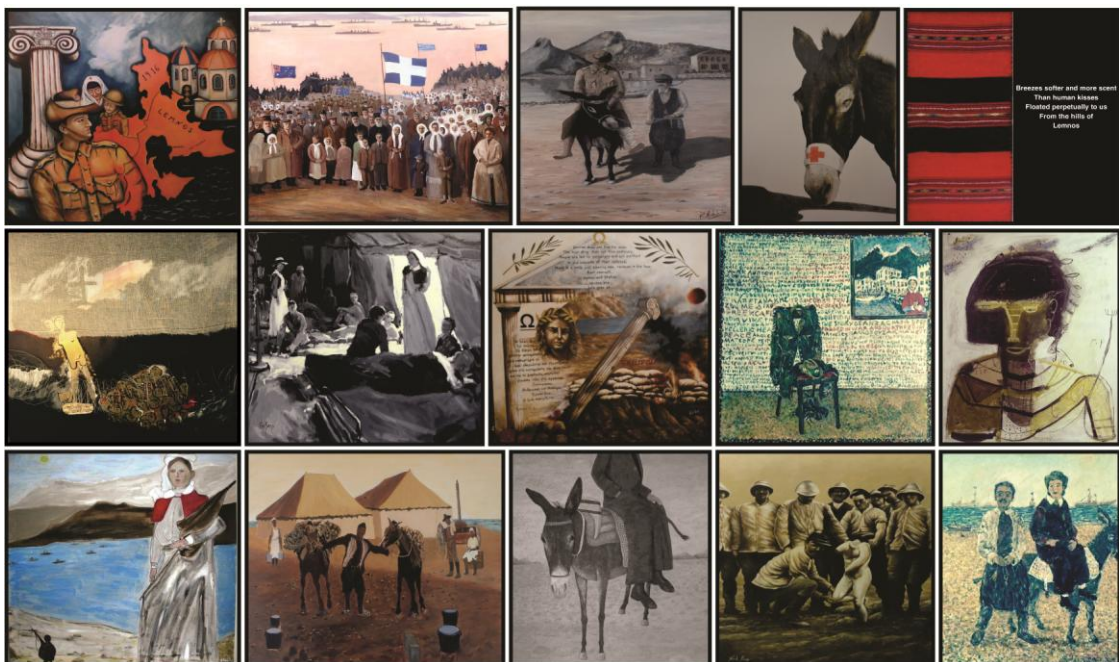

Greek-Australian artists will pay tribute to the Lemnos story at an exhibition in April.

The 14 artists have taken their inspiration from the Anzac spirit of sacrifice, the compassion and hospitality the island of Lemnos provided during the expedition, as well as the Australian nurses' heroism in the island's field hospitals.

Curated by Ambassadorice Eva T Dafaranos, "Lemnos: The Greek Dimension in the ANZAC Centenary" is an expression of homage on behalf of the 800,000-strong Greek-Australians to the fallen and wounded sons of Australia and New Zealand.

"The themes chosen exhume human feelings in times of war, together with the impact of the suffering, the vibes of a friendly and peaceful land such as Lemnos, the colours of the Greek setting, the Australian heroines and the brave souls of the enlisted men," Mrs Dafaranos said.

The exhibition will be held at the Greek Embassy - Residence, 115 Empire Circuit, Yarralumla. The artists will present their works at the inauguration opening of the exhibition on April 29. The exhibition will be open to the public on May 2 and 3, from 11am to 4pm. Admission is free.

The Greek – Australian artists participating are:

Karen Barbouttis, Nick Bonovas, Stephen Caldis, Olga Cironis, George Comino, Alexandra Danalis, Eyvah T. D., Stella Karydiotou, Dean Manning, Peter Michalandos, Ros Psakis, George Raftopoulos, Athena Xenakis, George Zindilis

The exhibition will be open to the public on May 2nd and 3rd, from 11am to 4pm. Admission is free.
