Harry Danalis

GOC President

This year the Greek Orthodox Community of NSW presents the 33rd Greek Festival of Sydney. The Festival continues to be the most important multicultural festival in Australia and the most significant festival in the Greek Community.

It has over the years encouraged, fostered and provided opportunities for local talent and has presented such talent not only to the Greek Community but also to all the other Communities which make up Multicultural Australia. The continued growth and development of the Festival is dependent on our commitment and the commitment of a wide representation of members of the Greek Australian Community, who work to make the Festival a success and who turn out in their thousands to support the many events during the Festival. The Festival cannot continue to survive and grow, unless we are able to make it financially viable so that the Greek Orthodox Community does not have to incur significant financial losses to sustain the Festival particularly in the current difficult financial circumstances.

Until now we have survived with such support from the Greek Orthodox Community, our sponsors and thousands of members of the community. Unfortunately Governments which so freely espouse multiculturalism seem unable to provide financial assistance to foster such multiculturalism, and this year no financial support has been provided by either State or Federal Government.

As always such a Festival could not be realised without the hundreds of volunteers who work tirelessly, devoting many hours to make the Festival a success. The events this year have something for all tastes and I commend all of the events for your enjoyment.

Nia Karteris

Festival Chair

The Greek Festival of Sydney remains the most significant and prestigious Greek-Australian community event in NSW. It is a festival with strong ties to Greece and its incredibly rich culture and history.

Embraced by all ethnicities and communities, it is a truly remarkable event that showcases the Australian multicultural spirit. Now in our 33rd year, we continue to grow, offering what has blossomed into a three-month long program of concerts, theatre productions, food and wine events, lectures, film screenings, art exhibitions and so much more.

We launch with the always lively and exciting outdoor festival at Darling Harbour on the weekend of 14-15 February. Our international musical guest Dimitris Basis, supported by Zoi Papadopoulou, will be an absolute treat for all audiences when he performs a free concert on the main stage.

What follows is a nine-week-long program which showcases international and local, established and emerging artists whose practices are enriched by their heritage and culture. All of our events are carefully selected for their ability to excite, provoke thought and entertain, while remaining completely accessible to the wider Australian community.

As always, our program would not be possible without the unwavering support of our presenting partner Delphi Bank and all of our valuable sponsors whose appreciation of Greek culture allows this festival to flourish.

I wish to warmly thank the organising committee, the Board of Directors of the Greek Orthodox Community of NSW, and the artists, staff and volunteers, whose efforts enable us to bring you this bountiful program.

The Honourable Tony Abbott

Prime Minister of Australia

I am pleased to provide this message for the 33rd Greek Festival of Sydney.

This is a highlight on Sydney's cultural calendar.

The Greek Festival brings the colours, flavours and sounds of Greece to the streets of Sydney. It is an opportunity for people to deepen their appreciation of Hellenic culture and for the Australian-Greek community to celebrate their heritage.

On the occasion of the Festival's 33rd anniversary, we celebrate the contribution of the Australian-Greek community to our country.

Since the 1800s, Greeks have chosen to make Australia their home and helped build our modern nation.

Today, there are more than 125,000 people of Greek ancestry living in New South Wales and I pay tribute to the significant contribution they make to the state's social and cultural landscape.

Australia has a multicultural character and it is unimaginable without the life, the times, the passion, and the love of the people who have come here from all four corners of the earth.

As a nation, we have found unity in our diversity and respect in our differences. Together, we have built a modern nation on the idea that anyone can get ahead provided they are prepared to "have a go".

I congratulate everyone who has worked so hard to make the 33rd Greek Festival of Sydney a success, and send my best wishes for an enjoyable celebration.

Bill Shorten

Leader of the Federal Opposition

It gives me great pleasure to congratulate you on the success of the 33rd Greek Festival of Sydney.

The Festival is a highlight of Sydney's social and cultural calendar, and is the most popular Greek-Australian community event in New South Wales. It is an opportunity to celebrate the cultural contribution of Greek-Australians, and to share the rich traditions of Greek culture with all Australians. The Festival is a much anticipated event, which is enjoyed by the entire community.

Modern Australia would be unrecognisable without the extraordinary contribution made by Greek migrants. Greek migrants brought our cities to life, and allowed our diverse multicultural society to flourish. Greek-Australians have excelled in all spheres of public life, from business, the law and politics, through to academia, sports and the arts. Your contribution has enriched us all.

On behalf of the Federal Parliamentary Labor Party, thank you once again for your extraordinary contribution, and all the best for this year's festival.

Mike Baird

NSW Premier

I am delighted to welcome you to the 33rd Greek Festival of Sydney, a major cultural community event on the NSW calendar.

The Greek community of NSW willingly and openly shares its customs and traditions with the wider community, contributing to the melting pot of cultures that makes NSW such an interesting and dynamic place to live.

On behalf of the NSW Government, I wish you an enlightening, joyous, and memorable occasion.

Luke Foley

NSW Opposition Leader

I send my best wishes to everyone attending the 33rd Greek Festival of Sydney – and congratulate all involved for organising such an inspiring event for over three decades.

The Greek community continues to make a proud contribution to our state – exhibiting leadership across so many fields from business and commerce to academia and the arts.

It is fitting that the Greek Festival of Sydney, showcasing the best of Greek theatre, art, music, food and wine, features prominently in Sydney's multicultural calendar.

The Festival is a chance for the Greek community to share its unique story and traditions with the rest of our city, to keep that culture alive and present it to new audiences. I encourage the people of Sydney to savour this event.

Alexis Tsipras

Greek Prime Minister

«Αν καταστραφεί η ανθρωπιά δεν θα υπάρχει πια τέχνη». Αν δεν υπάρχει τέχνη και πολιτισμός, θα χαθεί η μνήμη.

Το Ελληνικό Φεστιβάλ του Σύδνεϋ, είναι εδώ και δεκαετίες ένας θεσμός που συμβάλλει στην διατήρηση και τη διάδοση της πολιτιστικής μας κληρονομιάς.

Σας εύχομαι κάθε επιτυχία στις εκδηλώσεις σας.

Να είστε βέβαιοι και βέβαιες ότι ο ΣΥΡΙΖΑ θα σταθεί αρωγός σε κάθε δραστηριότητά σας, θα είναι δίπλα σας σε κάθε εκδήλωση και πρωτοβουλία σας.

Antonis Samaras

Greek Opposition Leader

Σας εκφράζω τις θερμότερες ευχές για το Φεστιβάλ που διοργανώνει στο Σύδνεϋ για άλλη μία φορά η Ελληνική Ορθόδοξη Κοινότητα της Νέας Νότιας Ουαλίας.

Ενα φεστιβάλ που αποκτά πλέον ιστορικό χαρακτήρα και για την μητέρα πατρίδα αλλά και για την πολιτιστική φυσιογνωμία της πόλης του Σύδνεϋ και της Αυστραλίας του σήμερα.

Συχαίρω την Ελληνική Ορθόδοξη Κοινότητα της Νέας Νότιας Ουαλίας για την μεγάλη και επιτυχή αυτή εκδήλωση για την οποία εκφράζω την πεποίθηση ότι ο Ελληνισμός του Σύδνεϋ θα αγκαλιάσει και πάλι με ιδιαίτερο ενδιαφέρον, διαδίδοντας με τον πλέον αποτελεσματικό τρόπο τον Ελληνικό Πολιτισμό και τα ιδεώδη της πατρίδας.

Εύχομαι κάθε επιτυχία.

Charalampos Dafaranos

Ambassador of Greece in Australia

As the 33rd year of the Greek Festival of Sydney approaches, I wish to congratulate you for the critical contribution of this important cultural institution which promotes hellenicity within the New South Wales wider society.

Sydney, a most hospitable corner in the Antipodes, a cosmopolitan city with a cultural flair, provides the appropriate venue for the numerous and diverse activities of the 2015 Greek Festival.

I wish to congratulate you also for paying homage this year to the ANZAC centenary and commemorating the contribution of the Greek island of Lemnos in providing hospitality and relief to the wounded allies a hundred years ago.

Lastly, I wish to extend sincere thanks to sponsors, artists and other actors representing the collective psyche of the Sydney Greek-Australian civil society and commend their role and contribution to the success of the festival.

Stavros Kyrimis

Consulate General of Greece Sydney

Είναι ιδιαίτερη τιμή μου να χαιρετήσω το 33ο Ελληνικό Φεστιβάλ Σύδνεϋ της Ελληνορθόδοξης Κοινότητας Σύδνεϋ και Νέας Νότιας Ουαλίας, το οποίο αποτελεί θεσμό όχι μόνο για την μακρινότερη και πολυπληθέστερη παροικία του Ελληνισμού, αλλά και για το πολυπολιτισμικό Σύδνεϋ. Είναι ιδιαίτερα συγκινητικό που 15316,16 γημ από την Ακρόπολη ο Ελληνισμός του Σύδνεϋ συνεχίζει να σκέφτεται, να εκφράζεται και να νοιώθει τον παλμό της Ελληνικής γλώσσας και τον πολιτισμό των οποίων οι ιδέες και οι έννοιες γαλουχούν δημοκρατικούς πολίτες, τόσο για την Αυστραλία όσο και για την Ελλάδα. Τα τελευταία χρόνια το Ελληνικό Φεστιβάλ του Σύδνεϋ έχει αναβαθμίσει τόσο ποσοτικά όσο και ποιοτικά τις εκδηλώσεις του με κύριο γνώμονα όχι μόνο να διαδώσει την Ελληνική παράδοση σε όλες τις γενεές της παροικίας αλλά και να τις γνωρίσει στην ευρύτερη πολυπολιτισμική Αυστραλιανή κοινωνία. Σε αυτό το σημείο είναι σημαντικό ότι η κύρια θεματολογία των φετινών εκδηλώσεων έχει ως άξονα τα 100 χρόνια των ANZACS υπογραμμίζοντας τον ρόλο της Λήμνου. Είμαι σίγουρος, ότι όλες οι φετινές εκδηλώσεις θα στεφθούν με επιτυχία και ο εξωστρεφής τους χαρακτήρας θα αποτελέσει στέρεη βάση και για τα προσεχή έτη.

Τέλος, θα ήθελα να υπογραμμίσω ότι η διατήρηση και διάδοση της γλώσσας, της παράδοσης και του πολιτισμού μας δεν είναι αντικείμενο οικονομικής εξέτασης και αποτελεί στόχο που χρήζει υποστήριξη και θυσίες, σε βάθος χρόνου, από όλους μας καθώς η μεταλαμπάδευση της ελληνικής φλόγας στις επόμενες γενεές είναι στόχος ανεκτίμητης αξίας, για να μην μετεξλιχθεί η παροικία μας σε Ποσειδωνία του Καβάφη. Θα ήθελα να ευχαριστήσω όλους όσους, όλα αυτά τα χρόνια έχουν βοηθήσει με κάθε τρόπο το Ελληνικό Φεστιβάλ να αποτελεί επιτυχία και πολιτιστική προμετωπίδα της παροικίας μας.

Douglas Lamb Wine Tasting

The Australian Archaeological Institute at Athens is proud to continue its project of promoting Greek wines. The rise of Greek wine over the past few decades has been boosted by the impressive skills of growers and winemakers; however, Greece's competitive edge lies in its wealth of interesting terroirs and local varieties, from Xinomavro to Assyrtiko. The evening will be a guided tasting tour by David Lamb, sommelier and Managing Director of Douglas Lamb Wines, presenting seven unique varieties made by some of Greece's finest producers. Places are limited and bookings are essential.

Laughter & Freedom

The Theory and Practice of Humour in Nikos Kazantzakis
A talk in Greek by Dr Alfred Vincent

What are the kind of things that make us laugh? Why those things and not others? What is the meaning and purpose of laughter? We will ask ourselves these questions, and then see what Kazantzakis' guru, the philosopher Henri Bergson, wrote in his famous book Laughter (Le Rire), which Kazantzakis translated into Greek. So did Kazantzakis have a sense of humour? Did he put Bergson's ideas into practice? And what is the link between laughter and freedom? The talk is co-presented by the Sydney Branch of the International Society of Friends of Nikos Kazantzakis.

Karpasi - The Lemnos Project

Portrait of a Greek village: photographs by Tom Psomotragos

The photographer was born in a small Greek village, which he left at the age of one-and-a-half to come and live in Australia. Haunted now, he tells us, by his first language and heritage, he has tried in these photographs to capture what remains of the life and people of that time. "It is a feeling, it is a memory", he says, "of what has been and what has not been." There will also be a musical performance by the Arion choir on the opening night of the exhibition.

A Family Affair

A film by Angeliki Aristomenopoulou

"We don't carry this tradition as a family weight. It's part of our lives, of who we are. We need this tradition to live, like we need oxygen", says George Xylouris.

A Family Affair is an intimate portrait of the famous Xylouris family and their sacred bonds with the musical tradition of Crete. Directed by Angeliki Aristomenopoulou, the film follows three generations of musicians of the family who uphold and pass on the vibrant tradition of Cretan music, performing ceaselessly to followers across the world. From the legendary Antonis Xylouris, widely known as Psarantonis, to his son, the famous lute player and singer George Xylouris, nicknamed Psarogiorgis and his three children Nikos Antonis and Apollonia, who are all studying in Australia, the film follows Greece's most famous musical clan, to discover the electrifying power of their music and the sacred ties that hold the family together.

Hellenic Lyceum Sydney Dance Concert

Guest performers from the Hellenic Lyceums of Lemnos and Kavala

2015 marks one hundred years since the Anzacs and the Australian Red Cross nurses participated in the battle of Gallipoli. They departed for battle from the Greek island of Lemnos, which served as an army and hospital base. Lemnos was also where they returned to recuperate. To commemorate the Anzacs and the role played by the island of Lemnos, the Sydney Hellenic Lyceum has brought two dance groups from Greece, together with a five-piece band. They will be joined by two hundred Greek-Australian dancers in traditional Greek costumes, performing dances from the Greek islands.

Melina Mercouri:

The Political Reincarnation of a Movie Star
A talk by Dr Panayota Nazou

Melina Mercouri is possibly the only person in the history of post-war Greece to enjoy equal respect both in Greece and abroad. Her influence was felt around the world as a political and cultural force.

The talk explores the changes Melina underwent in her development from international cinema star to a symbol of the persecuted artist, a symbol of the struggle for individual and national independence, and a visionary able to implement political and cultural programs nationally and internationally. Melina's legacy remains the core of every cultural proposal formulated by the Greek state.

The Forgotten Warriors

A photographic exhibition dedicated to the warriors of the Gallipoli Campaign

During World War I, on 25 April 1915, British and ANZAC forces began an attack on the Ottoman Empire's strategic Gallipoli peninsula. The naval attack was repelled and, after eight months' fighting with many casualties on both sides, the land campaign also failed and the invasion force was withdrawn to Egypt.

Twelve men of Greek heritage served on Gallipoli with the Australian armed forces, while at least forty served on the Western Front in France or Belgium. Marking the 100th Anniversary of the Gallipoli Campaign, the exhibition is dedicated to these young warriors. An initiative of the Castellorizian Association of NSW and the Australian Hellenic Historical Society.

On Seferis' Hellenism

A talk by Dr Anthony Dracopoulos

In the 1930s the poet George Seferis played a significant role in setting the pace for literary developments in Greece in the following decades. He constructed a comprehensive edifice with systematic views on the Greek language, literature, tradition, and Greece's relationship to Europe, arguing that modernisation in Greece was intrinsically connected to a new definition of Hellenism and the establishment of solid foundations for a national culture. This lecture will explore the key determinants of Seferis' modernising program, paying particular attention to his views on Hellenism.

Darwin's Footprint:

A Book by Dr Maria Zarimis

Launched by Scientia Professor John Gascoigne (UNSW) and Dr Alfred Vincent

Charles Darwin's theory of evolution revolutionised biology and deeply influenced modern thought. But how did Greeks react to it? Dr Zarimis' book discusses Darwin's influence on concepts relating to the nation, language, culture and politics. "The original and significant contribution [of] this book [...] derives from the fact that so little has been written, so far, about the influence of Darwin's writings and Darwinism on Greek literary and social culture" (Emeritus Professor Peter Bien). The event celebrates the centenary of the Greek translation of Darwin's Origin of Species by Nikos Kazantzakis, one of the authors discussed in the book.

The People of Zakynthos:

A Lesson in Humanity

Screening of the documentary The Song of Life, by Tony Likouressis (2002)

The documentary is based on the history and culture of the people of the Greek island of Zakynthos. It tells the story of the survival of the Jews of Zakynthos under Nazi occupation during the Second World War. The island's Jews were saved from genocide by the population at large and by the island's Metropolitan Bishop Chrysostomos and Mayor Loukas Karrer, who bravely refused to give the list of 275 names of local Jews to the Germans. The documentary is a tribute to the Greek spirit of filotimo (honour) and anthropia (humanity) as shown by the people of Zakynthos.
