

Invitation to Register for the 2016 CGL Examinations

All prospective candidates are now invited to register for this year's Centre for the Greek Language (CGL) Examinations to be held in May at St. Andrew's Grammar (officially-recognised CGL Examination Centre).

Persons of Greek and also non-Greek background are invited to test their written and spoken Greek language competency skills through these annual examinations. Successful candidates will be issued with a Certificate of Attainment in Greek from Greece's Ministry of Education and Religious Affairs, and the Centre for the Greek Language: Division for the Support and Promotion of the Greek Language (Thessaloniki, Greece).

There are 7 levels on offer, catering to a full spectrum of Greek language competencies. These include a level for children aged 8-12 years old, a level for beginner adolescents and adults, through to a level for persons with excellent knowledge of the Greek language.

The full complement of levels on offer is as follows:

- A1 for children 8-12 years old (Elementary knowledge)
- A1 for adolescents and adults (Elementary knowledge)
- A2 (Basic knowledge)
- B1 (Intermediate knowledge)
- B2 (Good knowledge)
- Γ1 (Very good knowledge)
- Γ2 (Excellent knowledge)

The 2016 CGL Examinations will be held on the following days:

- Tuesday 10 May for levels A1 (for children 8-12 years & adolescents and adults), A2 and B1
- Wednesday 11 May for levels B2 and Γ1
- Thursday 12 May for level Γ2

Fees have been set by Greece and are as follows:

- $130 for levels A1 (for children 8-12 years & adolescents and adults), A2 and B1
- $150 for levels B2, Γ1 and Γ2

For more information regarding registration and payment, please contact the following CGL Committee members:
