European Day of Languages with Colm Tóibín and three of his award-winning translators

7:15pm, Thursday, 30th September 2021

Colm Tóibín is one of Ireland's greatest living writers and his work has been translated into 30 languages. To mark European Day of Languages 2021, Colm Tóibín will be discussing his work with his French, Greek and Polish translators, Anna Gibson, Athina Dimitriadou and Jerzy Kozłowski, in a conversation with Professor Michael Cronin of Trinity College Dublin.

All three have translated several of Tóibín's novels and are, or will be soon, working on his new book The Magician, the fascinating life story of Thomas Mann.

Admission is free: click here for more information and tickets

This event is kindly supported by Alliance Française Dublin, the Embassies of France, Greece and Poland in Ireland, and by EUNIC Ireland. It is brought to you by

Trinity Centre for Literary and Cultural Translation, Trinity College Dublin
