

Greek films at Stockholm International Film Festival, 6-17 November 2013

FILM PACKAGE: THE GREEK FILM MIRACLE

Strong continuation of the Greek movie miracle at Stockholm International Film Festival! With critics and festivals celebrated "Dogtooth," "Attenberg" and "Alps" Greece has entrenched itself as a creative epicenter of surprising films. The festival has three films that continue to hold the banner high.

THE ETERNAL RETURN OF ANTONIS PARASKEVAS

By Elina Psykou

When commercial television was launched in Greece in the 80's Antonis was one of the faces outward. He is now a has-been that nobody cares about. His comeback Longing leads him to stage his own kidnapping and escape to a closed winter resort, but once there, his wounded ego is exposed for ghosts. A satire black humor "The Shining".

6 nov 18.00, 88 min, Victoria 4

7 nov 15.30, 88 min, Victoria 4

11 nov 20.30, 88 min, Victoria 4

LUTON

By Michalis Konstantatos

In 2007 the Greek director won Stockholm International Film Festival web based short film section ifestival with "Two Times Now ". Now he's back with his long film debut that intertwines the stories of a 50 year old family man, a lawyer in her 30s and a high school student. The distinctive visual style of Konstantatos, who has a background in theater and architecture.

10 Nov 13.00 100 min, Victoria 4

14 Nov 19.00 120 min, Victoria 2, Face2Face THE DIRECTOR SPEAKS

15 Nov 14.00 100 min, Victoria 2

MISS VIOLENCE

Alexandros Avranas

When Angeliki ,on her 11th birthday, is found dead under her balcony with a smile, the authorities wonder what it was that caused her to commit suicide at such a young age. The parents, however, claim with certainty that it was an accident. A dark exploration of community, family dynamics and silence tyranny that bears traits of »Dogtooth«

6 nov 19.00, 99 min, Grand 1

9 nov 21.30, 99 min, Grand 1

14 nov 21.30, 99 min, Grand 1

For more information (in Swedish) and tickets

<http://www.stockholmfilmfestival.se/sv/filmpaket2013/det-grekiska-filmundret>