

Shortcut to Europe: European Union Embassies' Open House

Saturday May 12th 2012 10 AM - 4 PM

Fancy a visit to Europe this spring? Then join the Delegation of the European Union to the United States, the Embassies of the 27 EU Member States to the U.S. and future EU member Croatia (joining in 2013) on May 12, 2012, 10 a.m. – 4 p.m., for the sixth EU Open House Day. The annual event, during which EU embassies open their doors to the Washington public, is part of Europe Week, which includes seven days of Europe-related events across the United States.

The Open House Day offers a rare look inside the embassies and provides a unique opportunity to experience cultural heritage and national traditions. Free shuttle bus service will be provided throughout the day with stops at embassies and select Metro stations. The EU Delegation and the Embassies will offer authentic music, dance, food, film, art and fun for the whole family.

EVENTS AT

Greece Makes Senses!

This tour of the magic land of Greece will allow you to use all your senses. Taste delectable and healthy Greek cuisine, with food products and flavorful samples from select Washington restaurants. Listen to the unique richness of music from all over Greece and learn how to dance Greek dances from our lively performing dance groups. Experience the true merits of the authentic Greek lifestyle as it survived for thousands of years.

Exhibition: "Contemporary Greek Architecture: Same Roots, Different Routes."

May 12-May 31 from 10am-3pm
The exhibition will showcase how Greek architecture started, influenced the world with its archaic style--from edifices like the U.S. Supreme

THE EMBASSY OF GREECE

Court building, to private homes--and how it developed into the contemporary, sustainable forms and ideas of today. Featuring the Video "Contemporary Greek Architecture: Same Roots, Different Routes."

Location: Embassy of Greece
2217 Massachusetts Ave. N.W.
Washington, DC 20008