Synopsis: Yannis is a 14-year-old boy who lives on a pristine Greek island. Still haunted by memories of his mother's death, he struggles to connect emotionally with his fisherman dad. One magical summer, Yannis rescues and befriends a young pelican that he names Nicostratos; he also falls in love for the first time, with Angeliki, a 17-year-old girl whose free-spiritedness overwhelms him and opens up unforeseen doors in his life. As the summer rolls forward, the emotional barriers between Yannis and his dad also begin to break down. 95min. In Greek and French with English subtitles.
