

TANGO SHOW
by TANGO ACROPOLIS

from Athens, Greece
January 25 - 26, 2013
Washington, D.C.

The largest Tango festival of Greece is visiting the U.S. - bridging countries through the elegance and timelessness of Tango.

TANGO ACROPOLIS IN WASHINGTON - January 2013-
Tango Acropolis, under the auspices of the Ministry of Tourism of Greece, proudly announces the start of its world tour. Hosting "Milongas without Borders", Tango Acropolis will bring a unique tango experience to audiences around the globe.

During its tour, Tango Acropolis will be conducting Tango workshops and will host Milongas without Borders, featuring performances by the members of Tango Acropolis along with an opportunity for friends of Tango from around the world to be able to dance socially on the dance floor. In Washington, DC, Tango Acropolis will feature a Tango fashion show and two photography exhibits.

The goal of Tango Acropolis is to bring the elements of Tango Argentino along with Greece's rich cultural heritage to major cities worldwide with enticing performances and exhibits full of energy and grace. The Tango Acropolis 2013 World Tour will culminate in an unprecedented global gathering at the base of the archaeological site of the Acropolis in Athens, Greece with the "1st Tango Meeting For Humanity," set to take place July 5 -7th, 2013. The "1st Tango Meeting for Humanity" will be made up of a grand milonga and gala honoring Tango enthusiasts and participants of Tango Acropolis.

We invite you to experience the unique synthesis of music, motion and passion of Tango Acropolis as we visit Washington, DC!
