

The Embassy of Greece presents:

Pablo Neruda

“A Brief collaboration of Two Giants: Theodorakis and Neruda”

A multi-media presentation by Alison Miller

This multi-media presentation will explore the story behind the master work of Chilean Nobel Laureate Pablo Neruda: Canto General that includes 360 poems, composed by Greece’s songwriter and famous composer Mikis Theodorakis in the: Oratorio for Soloists, Chorus and Orchestra. During two large tours, Mikis Theodorakis exposed tens of thousands of people around the world not only to Greek music, but also to poetry by Chile's beloved poet, Pablo Neruda. Experience the music and the poetry, with stunning visual images by the painter, Alfredo Arreguín, while hearing about the parallels in the lives of the artists.

Wednesday – May 23rd, 2012 6:30 pm -8:30 pm

Alison Miller is a researcher who spent many years in researching the brief collaboration of these two legendary artists. She has traveled extensively and speaks and teaches foreign languages. For more than thirty years, she has explored cutting-edge methodologies and theories that have made classroom learning more similar to being in a foreign country.

At the Embassy of Greece
2217 Massachusetts Ave. N.W.
Washington, DC 20008